THE

Plain Man's Plain Path-way

HEAVEN

recting every Man how he may be laved, Very scasonable for these times.

The 37th Ediction, with many Additions.

m 14.6. lefus faith unto them, I alle the way, the Truth, and the Life.

fo would know she way to Heaven above, of is the way, Faith, Hope, and Love.

meed for aut. Chartery, and E. Pamitget-and well or 的原则。如于12g. Steff 16g. 17 和 18g. 18g.

Plain Mans Path-way

Gate, for wide is the Gate, and broad is the way that leadeth unto Destruction, and many there be that go in thereat: But strait is the Gate, and narrow is the way that leadeth to life, & few there be that find it:

Pele mords, Beloved, air the mords of our Lord and Sations Islas Chaife and therefore to endeedery good Chair from a strention: being spaken by so with a Walter + toho not only labed us, but last own his Life for us; apit is Rom, 5, 6, 7, while While we were Sinners Christ dyed for is. And briebed, they are not only the words of a 1000 Counfel, not the Baby onto, but the Ballation of our Souls, plainly beclaring unto be the way to beatien, tobich is not the comment mien Road of the Marlo. The way to bear hen, is a freeight and narroth way, a bath toop enda thain's thay, and to halo ever would be fabe must walk in this way. Beloved, I beleeth ou to confider, Deaten cost our Sabiatic a war price, his precious Life and Blood; and had he not thed his blood, it had been im-Mble for us to have come to heaven. And blobed confider also that norwithitanting it coll Chill his Life to parchafe Deaben for us, get it is not an ealy matter to get to be ben ? the way to beaben is altogether up bill, and chough it be painful and difficult, pet it is wort our pains at lalt : there are treatures in Brabe joys unipeakable, and full of Glosp luch things as 5. Paul faith. r Cor. 1.1.9. That Eye hath not feen, Ear hath not heard, neither hath it entred into the Heart of Man to conceive the things that God hath laid up for those that love him. Bob fath laid them up for us. Dit the but fectously consider the happiness of the Saints in be ben, we should be willing to une bergoe any thing bece below to we might net thicher. It is the opinion and fond conceit elmost of all men, that they wall go to be ben and the hope to be laved as well as the belt, though the walk not in the way. But let them take heed how they beceive their own Souls, for the Scrip ture lays plainty, That those that would be la bed mult firlt be new Creatures, they mult be boin again. John 3. Except a Man be born again he cannot enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Secondly, they mult not libe after the flet and Luces of Men, but after the will of Gob. 1 Pet. 4. 2. And bow both God in his Wlogd Cap min Mould tibe, if they would be labed; F.rft, we mult live a life of faith. He that balleveih shall be faved, but he that believeth not is condemned already; the wrath of God abideth on him. Joh. 3.36. Secondly, he that would be fabeb.

ba

ani

ben

hath

th it

the

that

DI

tit

une

10

breb

rip

fa

en. Ind

a.

ien wi

et h

m-

th

bz

D.

labed must Repent . Bod commands all men eery where en Revent, Act. 17. 40. Rependance must follow after faith. Thirdly we thust be billing to forfake all for Chill; when the roung man faio unto him. Good Mafter what shall I do to be faved ? faith Chiff, Selball that thou halt, and give to the poor, and following and thou shalt have treasure in Heaven, Matteron 1. Men umfinor lar I have bought a Farm I abe married a Wife, therefore I connot come fourthly, chose that would be faved, mult be hole, unblame ble; walking no Chill walked; they mult ope unto In and live unso righteorification in unrighteous perfor thall inherit the King om of Beaben, a Cor. 6. 1. Deaben in the reard of belines, Having your fruit unto hotis nel, and the end everlasting life, Rom. 6. 22. and lattly, he must not be this once or twice. ut be must ferbe che Lord in Rightconsness and true Colinels all the days of his tife, Luke 74. for he that continues unto the end wall k labed, Mar. 20 2 1. Therefore untell men which as God in his word requires they frouit t, in bain on they lop, They hope to be lated to Chaff, unless eles tive as Chiff libed, Gos , as he was holy; for sectainly all choses that live in Sin, and dre in Sin without Repensance, shall come short of beaben; ond my Beloved beavenly Counsel was not der moje needful than noto, in these last and pold of times, which abound so much with

A 3

The Plain Man's and 9

fin and wickebusin, which plainly thems the specience the last times, as to Peter faith, 2Peter taith, 2Peter tait

Dow is Beligion and the ways of God feein and repreached at this day, not only by look and laciblous perlong, as Swearers - Dru kards Sabbath-breakers, and fuch like ungodly wretches, but by a generation of Vipers, forung at amongst us in these our days, called Quakers Shakers, and Rangers, who pretend holinels and are outwardly cloathed in theips cloathing but are indeed fuch as our Bablour fprake of in Mat. 7 15. Wolves in Sheeps cloathing who neipile Dominions, and fpeak eb t of Dignitics Eingoolpmen, tuening the Grace of God into manionnels, tenping the only Lost God. and ar Babinur Je'up Chift, as St. Jude fairl Who refult the truth, being men of corrupt minds, having a farm of Godliness, but deny-ing the power thereof, a Tim. 2.5. Profeding they know God, but in works they deny him, being abominable and disobedient; and toeio dear bown Apegificaty and Apinistry, which Plain Path-way to Heaven.

The great work the Devil aims at that to be made more easily betwee Sours: If once the Angill with but bear down Pinkiry and Paristrate pould have bear down Pinkiry and Paristrate pould have in believing Souls missions on officion; all were his own then. And therefore the Counter So. Jude gave these Christians in its bays, is now bery leasonable in these images is times, by there good Christian, that they build bewore, lest they be led away with the life with of chose wicked oness, and to fall from these own steplestaltness, and come shore of Deaben, enti le a

tra

CIS

101

e ant

rds

rret-

ers lefs

ing,

fin

in

2

inging và themselbes Eternal Defruction. and indeed the Epille of Sr. Jude in berp lalonable to there times, and I beleech every 1000 Chillian teriously to read it; see there the Meading Judgment of God against Sunners, which is wistren to our Coumple. Por that be hould follow them, but reas we hould be as fesio to Sin against Gob as they. For certainly Coo spaced neither the Old Minto, not the licaelices, not the Angels that fell bus bach re lerbed them in Everlating Chains, under the barknels, until the subgreent of the great hap, be will not space us if we iln as they bid. And like bile Sodom and Gomorrab, and the Cirles about them, art fet forth tot an Example, fuftering the bengeance of Eternal fire. God bath bung their in Chains, that all may take notice and be afgain to fin as they did: And certainly God is the fance God now, as he was then ; De's yearroay, to bay, and for ever this

9 4

lame

G

fame, and if you will inorwithstanding his er amples) prefume to go on in Sin, he will ce tainly bying upon you the fame Judgmenn And truly, the ling of Sodom are at this day this of England, Pride and fulness of Bread The Lago Grant we have not the Judgment of Sodom, fire and Crimitone e re long room nown upon us. Let England, especially London, ferfoully remember the lan Cramples of Fire. Pow chen Christians, I befeech you take the good Countel of St. Paul, Eph.6. 11. 12 Put on the whole Armor of God; for never was more need; now the Debil is most bulle to believy Souls, it becomes Chistians to be bil armed: we foodly count it folly and madnels in that manthat should know the thirt would come and rob tim, and would not provide and arm himlett against pint. Now Sirs, cor über th Debit freks to ech you of pauc precious Seuls, theretoze arm. pour libes, be not improvited when you may be armed: the Armor of God is Amor of Proof, and will bear off all the flere Darro of Saran: Refilt the Devil and he will flee from you, Jam. 4-7. The Devil is not able to have that Soul that both the Armo, of Goo, and wherehis Armo; of Goo is, Paul tellous in Epri. 5. 14, to 19. Stand therefore having your foins girt about with truth, and having on the breft-plate of righteonfress, and your feet shod with the prepartion of the Gospel of peace, above all taking the shield of Faith, where-Silla.

his m

read

ent

O.IV

Lon-

is o

s tabt

, 12

rever

Qe ro

e bif

gm

OHIL

orm the ulp, loca

7 19

ecy

xill

the ob, us re

el

wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the hery darts of the wicked: and take the helmet ofsalvation and the sword of the spirit, which is the word of God, praying always with all supplication in the spirit, & watching thereto with all perseverance; for whosever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

And this is the armour which every one that would go to beaven mult put on: for etther we mult be Souldiers of Chill, of the flaves of the devil, for all thate that fight under Saran are his flaves, therefore let us put on the armor of bod, and mark out our latration with fear and trendling. To which end our Saviour directions plainly thems us the way to beaven; which although it be a hard way, and a fraight way, yet it leadeth unto a bleffed Life; and what flough we be scratche in the way, with Breats and Thorns, and endure some hardship for a time; yet, when we cause to beaven it will surely make us amends at fall.

Did not our Sabiour himself, and all his Prophers and Aposles go to Heaven, through many difficulties? How were they busiled, frour ged and mocked, yea, spirted on, and dispiplifully used, by wicked and ungodly Men? Did it not roll ChBIS To Chis dear Life and previous Blood, to purchase Life and Peaven for us? Did not the Saints of GOD in all Ages willingly endure any thing to Peaven? they were content to part with all, knowing ing, they had in beaben a better and moje end ring lubitance. Dee what they luffered w joy for Deaben, Heb. 11. Abraham left country and inheritance, Moles for look Egypt chaling rather to lutter with Thill, than to en isy the pleature of Sin. And others dopper the Mouths of Lyons, quenched the biolence of the tire, were rottuced, bad tryals of truel much ing, pea, Bonds and impilonments: the were Broned, Sawn allinder, flain with th Swozd, mandjed about in Sheep Sking am Brats-sking; being beltirure, afflitted, rozment es, windling in Mountaing, and Defaits. Dens and Caberns of the Carth : of whom (faith the Apolitie) the World was not worthy. They d whom the most was not worthy, were accounted by wicked and ungodly men not worthy for to live and fojourn in the Morto. Dio not all the Marryrs luffer Weath with joy for Deabens Take? according to that Settly ure; Account it all joy when you fall into divers Temprations, Jam. 1. 2. how did Paul and Silasting in pie ion? Acts 16.35. They rejoyced, God accounted them worthy to fuffer for Heaven. They wert refolved no biffcutty to uld behar effem from Beaben: being pertwaded that neither Death or Life, nor things present, nor things to come; neither tribulations, for perfecutions, no any thing elfe should hinder em from Heaven, Rom. 8. 38. Chiff habing to 0 them that they thould be hated of all men to; his named

oppel

rock-

the the

the state

Į:

nomes lake; Wea, they that killed them, mould bink they die God good fet bice, John 16,2. Bemie they telong to Deaden; therefore the world ated them, they were affored of the cruth of the bord of God, which faith, that through many Cribulations we mult enter into the Kingdoni beaben. And is is not much beitet to fuffer tere a little affliction, as the Apolle calls ft, which is bur fer a moment; than for a little falon to enjoy the pleafures of fin, and be erermily in hell, in evertalling tomients, which hall never have end? O conficer this all ye that higher Goo; and diffice his wars and Ministry; inche ye this, all ye Kancers, Duakers, Winkers, and Swearers, who work ar the word of Goo; God will one day reckon with you for all your ungotty couries, and works of partinets : and then pour Patter the Debit whom pan fo much velighted to ferve, will pap you your wages, fire and Bifintoone, erecnal torments for eber and then rou will with and las, when it is mo late D that I had ferved God! D that I had not walked in these ungodly courses! withen God creed unto pou to tepene, pou would not bear ; and now you are in Bell roaring and cry: my to be eafed of pour entiels Comments. Goa will not hear you. At the vay of judgment, the rpes of wicked Wen wall be opened; they could fee no pleasure in the ways of God, but till their belight was in fin, it was fook and palitime the theor to an and offend the Lord, Other what mould they gifte now to be laved : they who fore would not forlake any one of their Sin though it were to labe their Souls, now the would give ren thousand delailos if they them, to have but one hours eale and liber to get Silvarion: What would it profit a me to gain the whole world, and to loofe his own foul ? Mat. 16.26,

moulo

Let eberg onerheretoje repent, and retuen unro the Lord , Roy be is merciful and full of compation : fir be to enter in at the ficait gate. and be not beceint pour poor Saule, by taint ing pour that goe to beaven tog your good means ing: to: it is mitten, Par every one that laif unto me Laid, Lord, Gall enter into the King domot heaven (lafth Christ) bur he tgar both the Will of mo father which is in berben, Mat. 7. 24. Wen think if they vo but come to Church and have a good meaning, they thall be labed. how many veceibe themselbes by this? St. Caryloftoin, who preached to that great City Antioch old believe, that of two hundred thou fand that came to bear the Wolozd, scarce a 100 Souls hould be laved: for if men would be laved, they must not only be bearers but doerd of the word, as St. James laith. Jam. 1.22. The Scribes and Pariles thought they hould go to heaven betoze any others. Why? they falled, they gabe Alms, they did more than come to Church, and yet they came most of locaben : And both nor Child tay, Chat except your rightePlain Path way to Heaven.

Ighteoulnels shall exceen the righteoulnels of the acribes and Pharifres, ye shall never insert the Kingdom of Deaben, Mar. 5. 10. Disous many thomands are there in England, whole Righteoulnels comes infinitely short of the Righteoulnels of the Scribes and Phaseless? nay, indeed have none as all neither feet for any: but on the contrary, belight in northing but uncleanels, drunkennels, and other lakes blows ling, of which Sr. Paul saith, they that the and dre in hem, shall never inject the kingdom of Beaben, a Cor. 6. 10. But shall becall into urrer darknels, where there shall be beeping and waiting, and gnashing of teeth.

ate.

ink

an

uch

ng

oth

O that men would be wife and conflore thefe herer end for es the tree falls to it lies: if men will live in their Sins, they shall doe in their Sins and perish for their. For without Holizaes, no man sha'l see God, Heb. 12. 14.

The young man in the Golpel, he enquired efter Salvation, laying, Good Master, what hall I do to be saved? But how many are there in England, who never in all their like long so much as think of heaven, and the salvation of their precious souls? Let the Lord call never to have by the voice of his Ministers, listing up their boice as a Countret, or by the voice of his works and works, by his mercies, which should indice men to come in, and by his sugments which should offeright them, how do they lye inoxing and sleeping in their sin, and never awake?

But let the world call and they presently fi let but a door be opened now to get riche and be gainers in the world, how do me thrust and throng, and every one strive to before another ? But the Ministers of 6 may cry and ca'l till their bearrs ake, for men go to Beaben, and then they fadly complain the Lord, as Isaiah did, Isa. 53. 1 Lord wh hath believed our report? We have toil'de the day, all the days of our lives, and have caught nothing, The Net of the Gospel has been always spread out, and yet scarce on Soul taken in it. Wie trad in Acts 2. 4. Th at one Sermon of St. Peters, three thousand Souls were conberced to the Logo, but now w may bear three thouland Sermons Preathed, and Cearce one Soul brought to Beaten. Wen att altogether of Golia's mind, Acts 18. 7. They care not for thefe things. Reber was there, fince the bays of Adam, fo much means of grace and Salbation as now. Have we not line upon line, piecept upon piecepr, Sermon upon Ser mon, mercy, upon mercy; and per all will not bo. Wen flop their ears, and refule to hear the boice of the Charmer, Charm be never lo Sodom and Comorrha in the day of judgment, then for England. And not only the Men of Nineve, but the cruel Jews and Turks hall rife up in Judgement against up, except we repent, Englands bell will be hotter than the ing dians

in

wh da

a v

one dan ant

att

re,

ace

on

C

OÈ

ar Co of the same

dians bell: Mihat Pattort on Deaple is there this bay, that God hath bellowed to many nercies on , esupon England; the Lord harb then us not only his Golpel, but alto peace and enty of all things: and yet not withflanding, pe grace of God barb to abounded rowards us. met we have turned his Grace into wantonnels, because the goodness and mercy of our God barb abounded cowards us, we have tax our and to luper-abound against him. Pow jully might the Lord, for our unworthiners, eben cause the dehouring Sword to be unsheathed mone anothers bowels again? and nor only ind the Sword amongst us again, which is mady to be baston, but tig bellroging angel with that lad and beaby subgement, the noplome Delfilence, which the Lord bath been pleased in muchmercy, to keep from amongs us a long time, then to admiration, and then Iweep us away in his weath and indignation, even every one a fing. It is the Loids mercy we are not unlumed, Lam. 3. 22. Did not the Lord renew his Mercies thery morning, we should be in bell e'ry night. Ab the Lord space us, for te is greatly to be feared thefe three heavy Judge-ments, Plague Jamine, and Sword, are even teady to fall upon us. How fully might the Lord give us a Jamine, not only of Bread, bu-allo of bearing the word of the Lord, even bet cause the bate belyised it, and loathed it, as the Ifraelites Ifraelites the Manna, the Lord Rained to Deaben, Beabenly Food, and it was loather wiecched Men. Daw ladly the Lord hath ca ed ireland and Germany to feel their three by Judgment 8, is treft in every mans mem e is not England as finful a Partion as any thefe were? yea, England is at this bay an u thankful and unboly people, a rebellious Parlon, who fland it out against the Logo: But le England know, the Lord will be tebengeb or them, Shall I not be revenged on fuch a Nati on as this? (faith the Lord) yea, I will be reveng'd cathem. D that men would fee the and nels of the Lord, & now too bar, eben while it is talled roo day, turn to the Lord by repentance, in who knows wherher the Lord will have mercy rea, he will have mercy on us if we repent. As I live (faith the Low) I defire not the Death of a Singer, but rather that he should turn from his wickedness and repent. Turn ye, turn ye, Taith the Lord, Ezek. 32. 12. And I will have mercyupon you. If there could have been found but ten righteous perfons in Sodom, God would And may not the babe Charet fr. Gen. 19. Lord space us, year, he will space us if we Repent. See what the Logo faith, Ma. 55: 7. Let the Wicked forfake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and turn to the Lord, and he will have mercy on them: let rong one therefore Cpeedily Repent without delap and fribe who thall begin first; if every one mould

Plain Path-way to Meaven.
It fweep his own book, the whole letters all from be clean; and if every one would the tof his own line, the line of the whole sha n would be blotten out; Yet forty days and neve thall be deftroyed, tairs the Lugo ; ent upon their repentance, the Loto Parboned a : and if ever they would go to beaven, it at be by Faith and Repentante, top no repention te, no walharion, Except ye repent, ye shall likewife periff, faith our Santour, Luk, 113 D O Without holinels no man shall fee the Lord, ati Heb. 12. 14. And without repentance there can te k no balinely, for bolinely is the fruit of repens ot ince ; if we be not holy bere, we wall never be t (a my hereafter. God himfelf harp fain to, and (D kis no Tyar. The Devil may perfiwade you CD : therwise, but he is a Lyar, and the Father 151 of Lyes, Job 8. 8. He will personne you to, one h of his velude your louis, and vians you into thell a pleaks you fair, but it may be, be will tell you om ye, mother tale in tell ; be is leke a great Bis ave docio, that promiferh great things, but indeed und signorhing to pay but Dell and Danmatton : All this will I give thee, if thon wilt fall down the Re-Let

rd, ulo

Pfal. 24. 1. The Wentl hath nothing at all to which it, but as God gives him leave; tiches and honour, would phonour and greatures, are the Deville dates to tarch poor South; he had and worthip me, faith the Bebil to our Babios, Mat. 4. But I pay, whole is the worlde is not the earth the Lords, and the fullness thereof?

their things before their epen , but is is the raims at, the end of his work is to delub ude ; the betil promifet hanch, and has thing an pay but hell and Danmarion, how many beliebe him? Let the Lord Cop. I is my Christ, take him, much good may be you, here is pardon of fin, receive it ; he life and falvation, heaven and happinels, who is there that dares to receive, You'll a come to me that you might have life, to Chille But let the Debil lay, You may go on your fins, take your pleafure in the world a that be well with you, it is time enough to repent hereafter, how readily be men beliebe to But if Wen bin beite know and beliebe whethe they are going when in win, they would go are that way, the way of thin in the becad way to Gell ; you may no merrily along, it's bown the tall force Gell as late. Je to full with Wen poing to fell, as it was with the Man that was n un ober a great Riber on a narroto Biloge, le pura on bia Spraarles, and fo the Bildge for ed wither than fr war , and the poor Man walls on lecently, and to falls belibe the Bridge, andis designed : Micken Apen they look an the ward with the Deb'ls Speciacles, and lo it feems ber? pleafant and beligheful and they tun on fector ly can me tay) wishour feer to mit, not confider-ing that thery frep they tread, they are ready to fall into bell. O Sinners; consider tojen pop 300

art inping, you are Bencing about th pell, and if the Loud spould but from in fun he Centrecistress of your Erben, you wo ently fall then bell : Wen think the plea mace Cueet , the Logo andward the nels in the laster end ; the tweet mes Il babe cowre cawer; Sin is the dear ulty in the world, you'd repent your of , you will lav then the bedil was pour be cheared pour pou gabe fin too muc on colls open their libes, and their douls fur more precious than Pearls of Rubies, and tole maken too by the bargain. The Wages of fin i Death, but the Gift of God is Eternal life through Jefus Chrift , Rom. 6. 22. Strille therefore to enter in at the Avaight Gare, ger to haven, though the way be hard, yet Aribe : you have the command of Chille, his example, the ex-ample of all the Prophers and Apolitics, and labing fuch a Cloud of differences , be nor bit courages , but run with parience the Roce that is fer befoge pou ; luffer not Datan to Detefbe gen , if you bo, you will furely repent it when it is too lare. Confider by the Co ande of Dives me Lazari s, ig it not betret, think you, to be in eaten with Lazarus, than to be in ben with Dives ? Dives wantes norhing on Carry, hat the Wiogloat will , fares Welfelsully roery tap. fur note is in hell, and manus a grop of water Lazarus he liked in great want only orificing had not inheconstant to teletie full of loges, wen they looked Countaily on and bis him not to much fabour as the to they came and licked his lozes, but Dives den him the Crumbs that fell from his Table 11 Dogg. What think you hid not Lazarusent much hardiffe to get to heaben ? he was h in much milecy, full of woes; now in heat hath Kibers of pleasures, jops unspeakable, a full of glory. D Belabed, it is better to beg Bread here with Lazarus for a little featon Carth, than to beg our Water with Diver hell to all Eternice : we should not judge the mozeh much now in the time of our life, which shall be of no worth hereafter. Riches. laith Solomon, make themselves wings and flye away; they are uncertain, here to day and gone to mor row, as woful Experience tells us, and an worth full nothing in the day of Judgement, in the life to come they are worthless things, there will be an end of them, But Godlinels hath the promise of this Life that now is, and the life to come, 1 Tim. 4. 8. Withen Dives was in his Donrificalibus, he had his purple cloathing, and dainty fare every day, who would not be Dives then? almost enery one; but when we read of Dives in bell Coments, then who would be Dives ? certainly none at all; Dives mould not be content in the effecte of Lazarus 10000 peans to be might be releated out of his tozmenes. ikewife when we read of poor Lazarus a Be gar full of forest, wanting Bread, in great

Plain Path-way to Heaven. rels of body, poho would be Lazarus in that ale? Certainly, none at all. But when noof Lazarus in Abrahams bolome, Lazarus in beaven, then who would not be Lazarus if emight? but if we would be Lazarus in en, we must be Lazarus on Earth; if we v pe the death of the Righteaus, we must the life of the Righteous: if we would fit bown in the Kingdome of heaben with Abraham, liac and Jacob, and all the Prophets, Apollies, and Saints of God, we must tread in their flep they have beaten the way, they have made it bepplain for us if we will, their part is clearly to be feen, we must walk as they walked, loberly live as they lived, holy and Righteoully all our days, induce hardifip as they bid, as you may in in the word of God; what did the Prophets and Apolities of our Blelled Lord and Sabio; undergo ? St. Paul tells us in his book of Martres, Heb. 11. They were persecuted, stoned, imprisoned, fawn afunder, mocked, fcourged despised by men, wandring about in Sheepskins, &c. And other Apolities and Baines i trad of, some torn in pieces by wild Beafts, others put in scalding Oyl, some had their skins flayed off alive, dragged about with Horses. some scorcht to death by Fire, others dash'd in pieces against the Rocks, not pittying nor sparing even tender fuckling Infants, but defroying all. The Lord make us lengthe of his labing mercies towards us, that we are not de-

Bas

ent

Si

heat ett (

on I

ves in e the white

550

way;

U.II

the

life

and Ves

of

libered into the hands of luch namerciful to ches : Therefore St. Paul faith, Let us no with patier ce the Race that is fet before in it is but for a little while, and in due time shall receive our reward, if we faint not, He 12. Let us then labour, not for the m hat perisheth, but for that wich endurether Evernal life. So bemeaning our felbes heren those who look to the coming of our Lozd Jeks who thall render to every one according to their works. And know that although the Rightron meet with hard fave in the world, yet their en thall be joy and prace; when the wicken Men though they be aboun'd and Crown o with Roll budge, and their parks wathed with butter, and libe an hundred years in pleature, pet they that ope accurled; for there will certainly come a wi when all Mankind, Rich and poor, thill appear naked before the Great Cribunal of the Lob; and their what will become of riches and honor, beauty and pleafure? then the Copwins of Kings, and the Mays of Begggers wall be taid adds and all without respect of persons, vereice Denomic according to the become wone in the Field; then Differ and Lucury, Swearing & Orunhenness, Swagtering. Complemental Datys. and ello ther bile and Lafrib oughels courting and Abo zations of beauty; they to much admired and this died Aris of the Gallance of the Miorid, Hall be pronounced our of the musty of God hindelf a be nothing but giltering abammations, Plain Path-way to Heaven headulteraring wates. I while wubt find weigh ind faile measures, now almost woven inte ery are of Trading, wall be pronounced to be othing elle but Applieries of infautep and fellecribings, and thall be rewarded with Greenal fire; and then the poor despited profession and notessours of the power of Godinelo memble at the dillord of Bod, make d their ways, and forbear not only Clain and Micked Darby, but also idle words, whole heart bleeds for the abomination of the times, and th Mickednels of those among whom they Tibe who walk tumbly and Mournfully before it Low, in an exact poly Convertation, in the mind of a cropked and perberte Generation; mill good earnest be pronounced from the Mouth of Godhimfelt, to babe walked in that true and narrow was that leadeth to Eternal Life, then the wicked and ungodly, who macked at the work of God (when it is too late) thall be forced to conlife and lap, O what fools were we! we accounted their lives, madness; & judg'd their end to be without Honour. How are they now reckoned among the Saints? and have th ir portion in Heaven, fitting down with Ababam, Haac, and Jacob, in the Kingdom of their God, and we who lived in pleasure, and walked in this easie and smooth way, are tumbled down to Hell, there to receive the ust reward of our ungodly fayings and dongs, Eternal Torments for ever and ever.

thre

r ent

a do je pear

rtti

the the

The Plain Man's, et.

Pow to conclude all in a Mozd, Le to one of us take the good Counsel of Solomon remember our Creator in the days of our your Rejoyce, O Young-man in thy Youth, and thy Heart chear thee; but know, for all the thou mult come to Judgement. Remembere is both a Heaven and a Hell; a Heaven ceward the if thou dost well; a Pell to toy thee if thou dost ill; Labour then to be of a number of those, to whom the Lozd shall say the last and great Day of Judgement, Come ye Blessed of my Father, inherit the Kingdome prepared for you from the beginning of the World, 99at. 25.25. Unto which Kingdom the Lord of his mercy bring us all.

Now the God of Peace, that brought again from the dead the Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of his Sheep, through the Blood of the Everlasting Covenant, make us perfect in every good word and work, to do his Willworking in us that which is well-pleasing in his sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom be Glory and Honour now and for ever, Amen.

